

FRIENDS OF TUCSON'S BIRTHPLACE INVITES YOU TO THE

SAN YSIDRO FESTIVAL

TUCSON FARMERS' FESTIVAL AT MISSION GARDEN

May 19, 2018, 9 – 11:30 a.m.

- ☼ Nine am procession in the Garden with Mariachi Milagro, Tucson Chinese Cultural Center Lion Dancers and Basket Dancers from San Simon School.
- ☼ Blessings of the Fields, Gardens, Animals and Foods from the Garden
- ☼ Dedication ceremony of the new Chinese and Mexican Timeline Gardens
- ☼ Traditional Mexican Pozole de Trigo and Chinese Wintermelon Soup
- ☼ Harvest, thresh, winnow and mill the Garden's wheat crop using traditional tools and methods.

After the procession, stay for...

DI ADE SAN YSIDRO LABRADOR

PATRON SAINT OF FARMERS

PRESENTATION BY PATRICIA PRECIADO MARTIN

SPECIAL DEDICATION OF THE CHINESE & MEXICAN GARDENS

Mission Garden continues to add new interpretive spaces to its living museum of agricultural history. Learn about the history of Mexican and Chinese farmers, see examples of fruits and vegetables grown in the gardens of local Mexican and Chinese families, and help develop future outdoor demonstration kitchens celebrating Mexican and Chinese agricultural history and cultures.

missiongarden.tucson@gmail.com, 520-955-5200, www.missiongarden.org